SPEAKING TOPICS

The "Secret Sauce" of Leading Transformational Change

Learn the three most effective skills you can develop to ensure your transformational change is adopted to bring the business results you need.

Living on the Edge of Uncertainty

If the last two years have taught us nothing else, we all now realize how uncertain our world can be. Human nature resists change and tries to return to "normal". What can we do when there is no more "normal" to return to?

Creating a Generationally-Inclusive Culture through Reverse Mentorship

There are currently four generations in the workforce and each brings strengths and weaknesses - that's not new. What IS new is the need for Reverse Mentoring (TM) - a concept that acknowledges that successful mentoring can no longer go one way...
